API Council Luncheon with San Francisco Police Chief William “Bill” Scott

San Francisco - The Asian Pacific Islander (API) Council of San Francisco hosted a community meeting over lunch with the newly appointed Police Chief William “Bill” Scott at Lady Shaw Senior Center this noon. Chief Scott is a 25-year veteran of the Los Angeles Police Department, serving the last two years as deputy chief leading the department’s 1,700-member South Bureau.

“API Council is thrilled to host this event where the community nonprofit leaders will have the opportunity to welcome Chief Scott to San Francisco City. We are committed to growing our relationship with the San Francisco Police Department and sharing our community’s concerns with Chief Scott.” said Cally Wong, Director of API Council.

About the Asian Pacific Islander Council

The Asian Pacific Islander Council (API Council) unites over 40 nonprofits and community leaders to advocate for the needs for Asian and Pacific Islander (API) San Franciscans to ensure that San Francisco is a safe, livable, and beautiful city.
